

Niki Shuhada Shukor

Niki has appeared in television, magazines and newspapers for her inspiring success story. She has a reputation for her passion in training and development. She has trained many people including personnel in the Unit Trust industry. She is also involved in corporate and professional training and development courses with many organizations.

She has been described as an outstanding leader and a source of motivation by her group of 2,000 consultants. She has won numerous awards for sales and leadership, the highest for sales being the Premier Club President, an award for the highest personal sales in a year, and the highest for leadership being the Master Builder Award, an award for all-round excellence in group development.

Niki started her first Star Club, an uplifting mix of motivation and training session, in the year 2000. The Star Club provides weekly motivation and a place for consultants to feel a sense of belonging, as well as learning essential skills to achieve success in salesmanship and entrepreneurship. The Star Club program has been mainly responsible for elevating her group to be the top sales group, bringing in excess of RM300 million worth of unit trust sales to date.

Niki has traveled extensively in Malaysia and around the world to learn from the best of the best in training, including one of Asia's top speakers and master trainers, Lawrence Walter Ng, and the World's No. 1 Success Coach, Anthony Robbins. She is also a supporter to Malaysia's Iron Lady, Dato' Maznah Hamid.

Now she is ready to share, the up to now private, Star Club experience with all sales professionals. Step up and unleash the power within you to excel in salesmanship and entrepreneurship, and to give the best to your clients by being the best professional.
