

NLP PRACTITIONER CERTIFICATION

YOUR TOOLKIT TO ACHIEVING OUTSTANDING SUCCESS

Neuro Linguistic Programming (NLP) is a highly efficient and easily applied model for understanding and influencing human behaviour. Used in the workplace, NLP can help us create profound and lasting behavioural changes in individuals and in organisations. This course will equip you with outstanding communication and negotiation skills, and a communication toolkit that will serve you for life. You will gain the skills, abilities and knowledge to achieve outstanding success in business and reach heights you never thought possible. Our previous program participants said they gained amazing clarity in their personal and business objectives; sales delegates surpassed their targets; and managers reported great changes in previously confrontational situations.

Who Should Attend?

NLP is a development course for people who want to achieve outstanding success in all areas of their personal and professional lives. Some examples of previous participants include; business executives, professional athletes, counselors, sales personnel, consultants, coaches, etc.

What You Will Achieve

The NLP Practitioner Program will help you:

- develop strategies for peak performance and creativity
- access memory and enhance concentration and learning
- reignite the passion and meaning in your work and life
- sharpen your intuition and let your life flow
- operate from trust to achieve greater success
- utilise the power of positive thinking to a directed future
- discover rapid rapport skills to strengthen relationships

What Participants Say

Fantastic. Totally enjoyed it. Excellent material. Excellent presenters. Well planned. Great to get the CDs and manual first – and the assessment, and then do all the “practice” in the program. Felt totally supported throughout the program. A wonderful way to learn. Inspiring and transformational for both career and personally. Am waiting in anticipation to see what else unfolds.
